

It is surprising that we managed to find wild tomatoes and wild eggplants!

You are now back to safety in Panic's house

The land around the village was all cultivated fields before the monsters invaded

Do you like ratatouille?

It has eggplant,
tomato, mushroom,
and potatoes.

Potatoes?

We did not collect any potatoes!

This village
farms potatoes
on the top of buildings and
walls

Out of reach of the monsters

Potato sacks
line our walls

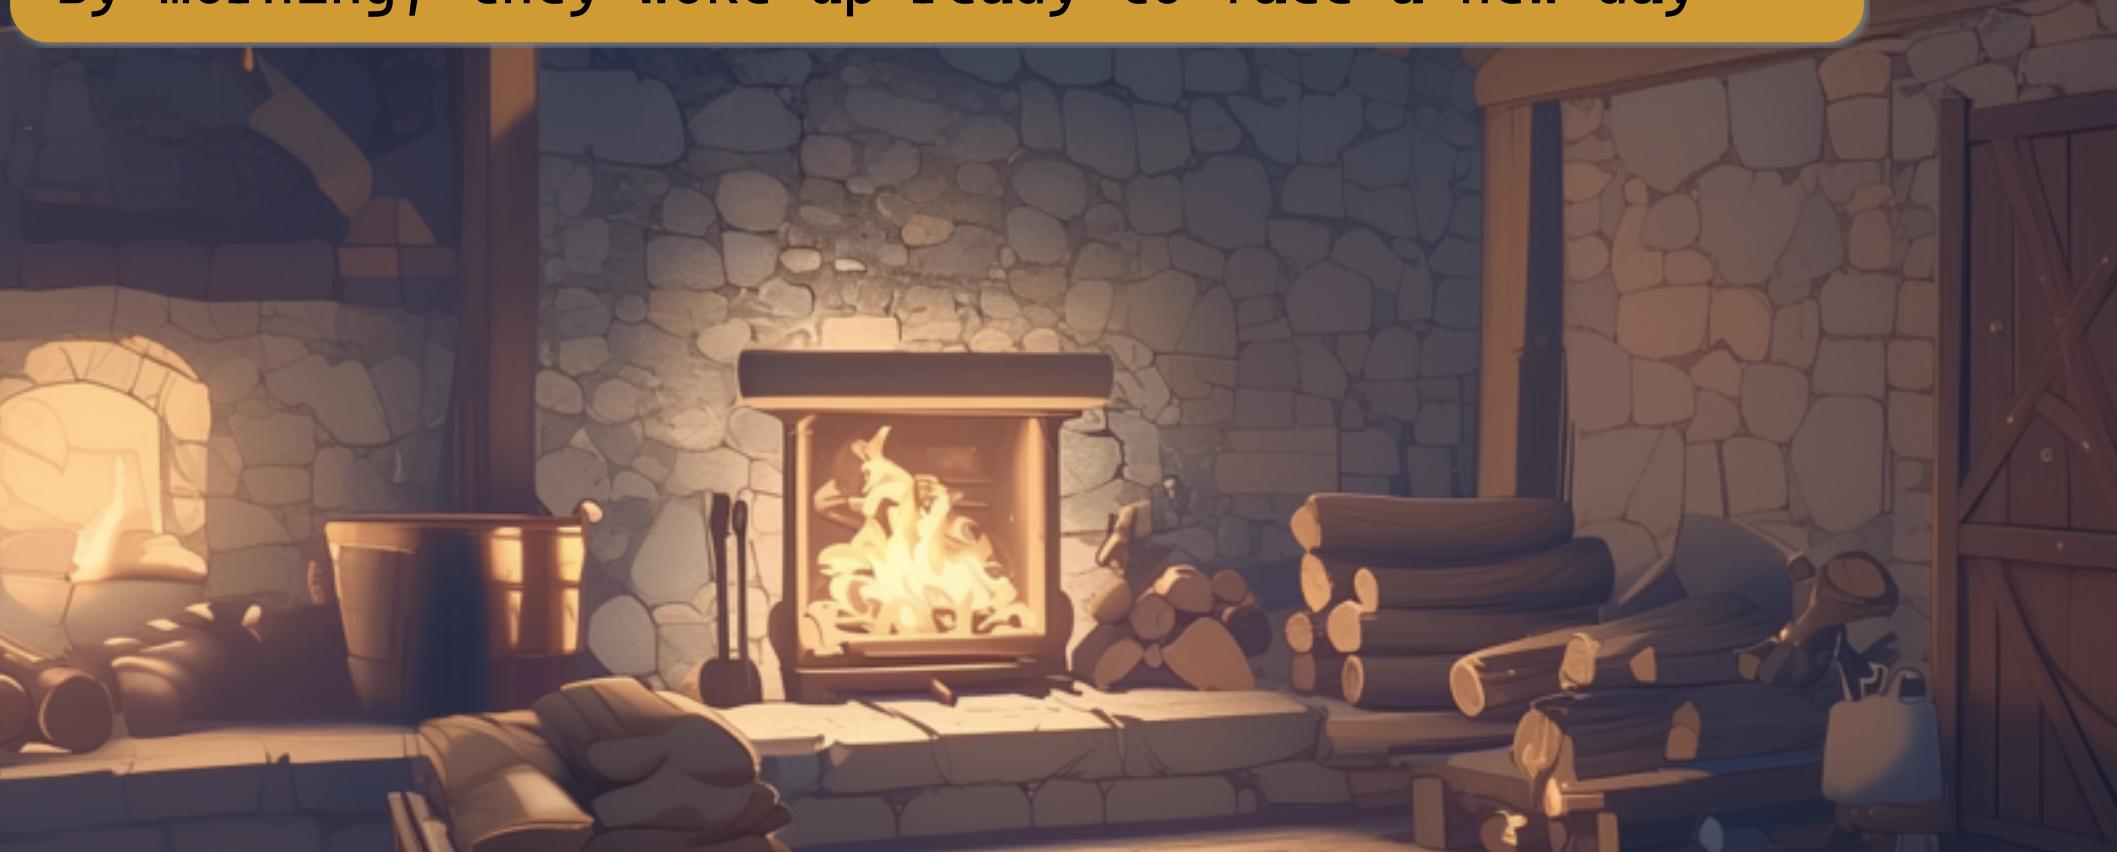

to grow the carbs
we need to survive

Wow, that is pretty smart!

With the sweet, savory taste of the ratatouille still lingering, they drifted off to sleep

The night passed peacefully, with no sign of danger. By morning, they woke up ready to face a new day

This game is divided in 'Days'
