Panic enters the room with a basket of food

I've got more potatoes for breakfast!

This time I steamed them with the magic hot stones!

They are so
convenient!

After enchanting
them, they stay
piping hot forever

I see you have been reading my Archery book

Yea, sorry for that, I was bored

Not to worry!
Please read any books you like!

If you want some
archery practice,
there is a training
ground outside

Should we go?

They start walking toward the training ground

You look way to excited about it

A white, fox-like creature with large purple eyes and a bow.

Take this bow
and go!

Very good!

At home I will give you the second volume,
with more advanced
archery

Those books are ruined and some words are hard to read

Use the context to understand them
